Matthew 10:16-31
“Frontier Work”
12/12/21

I. Defining the call:

- 1) Validity of the Great Commission for today:

- 2) Establishing a difference between “doing the work of an evangelist” and “frontier missions”.

- 3) Exploring the “nations”: unreached people groups.

II. Six costs on being on the frontline of frontier missions:

- 1) The cost of being arrested by authorities. (v.16-18)
- 2) The cost of family betrayal. (v.21)
- 3) The cost of being hated by all. (v.22)
- 4) The cost of being persecuted and ran out of town. (v.23)
- 5) The cost of being maligned. (v.25)
- 6) The cost of being killed. (v.28)

III. Ten blessings of being on the frontline of frontier missions:

- 1) The blessing of being sent by Christ. (v.16)
- 2) The blessing of being given words by the Spirit. (v.19)
- 3) The blessing of experiencing God’s fatherly care. (v.20)
- 4) The blessing of salvation at the end of it all. (v.22)
- 5) The blessing of knowing Jesus coming to judge. (v.23)
- 6) The blessing of belonging to Jesus’ household. (v.25)
- 7) The blessing of knowing that truth will triumph. (v.26)
- 8) The blessing of having an immortal soul. (v.28)
- 9) The blessing of having a sovereign Father. (v.29)
- 10) The blessing of being valued by God. (v.30-31)
