“United: Called to Be One”
Philippians 1:1-8, & 2:1-2
04/16/23

Intro: Paul’s purposes for writing Philippians: Grace and Peace.

Body: Paul’s gospel “joy” (calm delight):

- I. You are a partner in the gospel.

- II. You are a work in progress.

- III. You are loved.

Application:

- i. We are called to a oneness in thinking:

- ii. We are called to a oneness in love:

- iii. We are called to a oneness in passion:

- iv. We are called to a oneness in mission:

- v. We are called to a oneness in purpose:

Concluding Questions:

- 1. What are our (yours personally and ours corporately) greatest challenges to this oneness? You are a work in progress.

- 2. What practical steps is God calling us (you personally and us corporately) toward this oneness?

- 3. Who can you invite to meet Jesus so that they might experience the oneness only possible in Christ?
