“Parable of the Vineyard”
Matthew 21:33-46
08-13-23

- I. Jesus’ communication of the parable to the Jewish leaders.
 - 1) Scene #1: the Landowner plants a vineyard.

 - 2) Scene #2: the Landowner sends servants to the vineyard.

 - 3) Scene #3: the Landowner sends His Son to the vineyard.

- II. Jesus’ questioning of the Jewish leaders in light of the parable.
 - 1) Question #1: What do the people who reject the Son deserve?

 - 2) Question #2: What do the Scriptures say about this?

- III. The reaction of the Jewish leaders to the parable: Further rejection and hardening.

- IV. Concluding Application:
 - 1) Do not assume that knowing a lot about Scripture is the same as understanding what it says.

 - 2) True faith always bears fruit.

 - 3) Those in Christ today should be moved to worship and thankfulness by this parable – the kingdom was given to you and me so that we might bear good fruit to the glory of God!
